

Mrs. Mittie Huffaker.

HAD GIVEN UP ALL HOPE.
CONFINED TO HER BED WITH DYSPEPSIA.

"I Owe My Life to Pe-ru-na," Says Mrs. Huffaker.

Mrs. Mittie Huffaker, R. R. No. 8, Columbia, Tenn., writes:

"I was afflicted with dyspepsia for several years and at last was confined to my bed, unable to sit up.

"We tried several different doctors without relief.

"I had given up all hope of any relief and was almost dead when my husband bought me a bottle of Peru-na.

"At first I could not notice any benefit, but after taking several bottles I was cured sound and well.

"It is to Peru-na I owe my life today.

"I cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers."

ALONG THE WATERFRONT

Schooner John Rose's Bowsprit Rakes the Cressy.

ANCHORED TOO CLOSE TOGETHER

When Vessels Swung Around With Tide They Came Together, the Cressy Being Slightly Damaged—Anchorage Changed Later.

While swinging around with the tide Sunday night the schooners M.
D. Cressy and John Rose, then at anchor in the harbor, off the Casino, collided. The Rose's bowsprit raked down one side of the deck of the Cressy, carrying away her mainstay and slightly damaging her deck railing and rigging. The Rose was uninjured.

When the accident occurred the schooners were anchored close to each other and when the tide swung the Rose around her bowsprit struck the Cressy, which also was swinging around in the opposite direction.

Yesterday morning the vessels changed their anchorage in order to avoid another collision. It is claimed that neither skipper could be blamed for the accident.

HAD ADVENTUROUS VOYAGE.

Schooner Jennie French Potter Arrives Twenty-two Days Out.

After an adventurous voyage down the coast, the big five-masted schooner Jennie French Potter arrived at this port early yesterday morning, twenty-two days out from Boston.
The Potter encountered adverse winds and rough weather almost constantly during her trip, but she rode through every storm safely and arrived here without mishap.

MR. CARMICHAEL DEAD.

Old Resident of City Passes Away After Attack of Heart Failure.

Mr. Daniel Carmichael, one of the old residents of the city, died suddenly Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock at his home, Mrs. Taylor's boarding house on Thirty-second street between Washington and West avenues, after a brief illness with heart failure. He was 73 years old on the ninth of this month.

Mr. Carmichael was taken ill Saturday evening and Dr. W. R. Aylett found him suffering from an attack of heart trouble. A trained nurse was provided and everything possible was done to relieve the sufferer, but he continued to grow worse until the end came.

The deceased leaves a widow and six children. Mrs. Carmichael, one daughter and two sons, live in Detroit Mich. Two sons live in Chicago and a married daughter, Mrs. D. B.
Hayes, lives in New York.
No arrangements for the funeral will be made until the members of the family are heard from.

Mr. Carmichael came here eleven years ago. He was a real estate dealer and also represented the M.
Airy Granite Company, furnishing nearly all of the granite used in this section. Even, until a few days before his death he was a remarkably sprightly man for his years and it was a noticeable fact that a large number of his many friends were young men.

Addition to Hospital.

The St. James hospital, conducted by Drs. W. R. Aylett and W. F.
Cooper, has been temporarily closed in order that an addition to the building may be erected. It is announced that the hospital will be reopened about September 15.

Crap-Shooters Fined.

Eight negroes arrested near the Chesapeake and Ohio depot Saturday night by Officer Pearson and Special Officer Pettus, were fined the usual $4.50 in the police court yesterday morning.

JAP POACHERS INDICTED.

Twelve of Them to Be Tried by United States.

(Special to the Daily Press)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 20.— Acting Secretary Murray, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, today received a telegram dated at Valdez, Alaska, from Walter L.
Lembeck, agent in charge of the fur seal fisheries of Alaska, informing him that the twelve Japanese poachers captured recently on St. Paul Island, while raiding the seal rookeries, were indicted last Saturday for violation of the United States law enacted to protect the fur bearing seals.

The prisoners will be arraigned shortly in the United States district court at Valdez.

witness the review.

REAL ESTATE MAN ARRESTED.

Postal Inspectors End Lottery Scheme in Connection with Town Lots.

(By Associated Press.)
Memphis, Aug. 20.—Dr. H. Mc-Gruder, at Gulfport, Miss., a realty man, who has disposed of thousands of lots on Mississippi Sound by a mail order scheme, has been arrested, charged with using the mails to defraud.

By advertising a chance to win one of three houses, valued at $2,500 each, with every $30 lot sold, Mc-Gruder sold to buyers from New York to California. Few of the lots were worth more than $10, and up to yesterday, when the postal inspectors sat down on the scheme, no houses had been won.

nate President Fallieres during his coming visit here are expected when the government agents find the sender of the anonymous letter, which led to the arrest of an Italian anarchist named Cirillo Francese, a bootmaker. The plot is now believed to have been hatched in the anarchist quarters of Paris.

The police found nearly 400 grains of fulminate, 500 lead screws and other parts of bombs in the lodgings of Francese.

"BAD" NEGROES JAILED

Noah Davis and Will Spencer Charged With Housebreaking.

STOLEN GOODS FOUND IN NORFOLK

Fearing Notorious Pair Would Escape

From Bloodfield Lock-up, Chief Walker Brought Them to City Police Station For Safe Keeping.

Noah Davis, alias "Stacksey" and Will Spencer, alias "Black Boy," two notorious negroes, whose photographs occupy prominent places in the city department's rogue's gallery, were arrested yesterday by Chief of Police Walker, of Bloodfield, on the charge of breaking into M. D. Rosenbluth's clothing establishment and stealing $90 worth of clothing. In the arrest of these negroes it is believed that the authorities have landed the men responsible for a great deal of the housebreaking and thieving that has been going on here and in Bloodfield recently.

Rosenbluth's place, which is located on Twentieth street, just across the city line in Warwick county, was robbed last Wednesday night. The thieves got into the store by climbing over a shed. They covered their tracks so well that the boy living over the store decided Thursday that he must have been mistaken when he thought he heard some one in the store. Saturday, however, suits and overcoats valued at $90 were found to be missing.

Davis and Spencer were arrested by Chief Walker and held on suspicion.
Yesterday the chief went to Norfolk and located the stolen clothing in a pawnshop.

Chief Walker says he has a strong case against the prisoners and is confident that they will be sent up for long terms. Fearing that they would escape from the Bloodfield station, he had them brought to the city last night and lodged in the police station.

SUICIDE FOLLOWS BANK FAILURE

Another Self-Murder Laid at Stens-land's Door.

(Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, ILL., Aug. 20.—Another suicide was added today to the list caused by the wrecking of the Milwaukee Avenue State bank.
Edward Kollerich, 45 years old, who two months ago deposited $250 in the institution, today hanged himself from a pile of lumber in sight of men in boats on the lakes.

Receivers Charles G. Dawes today closed the Milwaukee Avenue Co-Operative store, one of Paul O. Stensland's enterprises. The store was closed in preparation for a receiver's sale.

BAD MAN HANGS HIMSELF.

Murderer of Fellow Convicts Saves the State a Job.

(By Associated Press.)
LUFKIN TEX., Aug. 20.—John B.
Roper, the man with many aliases, who murdered without cause two fellow-prisoners, Trawick and Crowder, in the county jail here August 15 by beating them to death with a heavy bucket as they slept, ended his life by hanging himself in his cell late last night, using a strip of blanket.

He acknowledged a few days ago that he was a member of the Dalton gang of bank robbers at Longview, Texas in 1892. Sheriff Watts has evidence that Roper was the man wanted in Arkansas for the murder of Sheriff Boyd in 1892. Roper acknowledged various other atrocious crimes in Texas, Louisiana and Arkansas.
